RACHEL ANN JONES LEE AND ORSON HENRY LEE

Rachel Ann Jones Lee was born January 8, 1861, in Fairview, Sanpete County, Utah, daughter of Elisha and Sarah Ann Cummings Jones.

She was baptized September 5, 1869.

She was married to Orson Henry Lee on February 12, 1880, in the Salt Lake Endowment House. She served as Relief Society president many years in the Elkhorn Ward. She was a kind and loving wife, mother and neighbor, always ready to assist anyone in time of sickness or trouble.

To help with the family finances, at different times she had a general store in her front room. She baked 18 loaves of bread every day for six or eight months for the men who were building the railroad grade that went through their property. She raised geese to sell and took in boarders, men who worked in the Ontario mine.

She was noted for her beautiful handwork of all kinds, receiving awards in county and state fairs. She was an invalid the last 10 years of her life, but continued to create beautiful gifts for friends and relatives. She was a widow 18 years, passing away January 22, 1940, at Daniels, Wasatch County, Utah, at the age of 79.

Orson Henry Lee was born October 23, 1850, in Sheffield, Yorkshire, England, son of Thomas Octavis and Ellen Tadwell Lee.

He was baptized in 1858 at Sheffield, England, from which country he left in 1863 at the age of 13, arriving in Salt Lake that same fall.

He was rebaptized May 18, 1878, and ordained an Elder the following day. He married Rachel Ann Jones on February 12, 1880, in the Salt Lake Endowment House. To this union were born seven children, six of whom still live. They spent most of their married life on a dairy farm in Elkhorn. For approximately 35 years he made a daily trip from Elkhorn to Park City, supplying the mines with meat and dairy products.

He was superintendent of the Sunday School and first counselor to the bishop for 15 years. He served as bishop 10 years. After that he was a ward teacher. He was kind, inoffensive, humble and a true Latter-day Saint. He died November 15, 1922, in Heber, at the age of 72.

To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the person submitting the sheet, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.
